

The 30th Annual Dr. Frederick Holliday Celebration

Honoring Our Past,

Improving the Present,

Looking to the Future

November 15, 2011 ~ The Yorktowne Hotel

The 30th Annual Dr. Frederick Holliday Celebration

Join us as we listen to the past, present, and future of local Human Relations Commissions from guest Speakers
Kaaba Brunson, Former Regional Director, PHRC
Jim McClure, Local Historian

Tuesday, November 15, 2011

The Yorktowne Hotel

5pm—Cocktail Reception

6pm—Dinner

6:45pm—Awards Program and Keynote Speakers

Honorary Host Committee

Mayor C. Kim Bracey, Rev. Kate Bortner, Ms. Loretta Claiborne, Ms. Ruthe Craley, Mr. Robert Pullo, Mr. Robert Simpson, and Dr. and Mrs. Ken Worthwein

The event is held in honor of the late Dr. Holliday who was the first African American Superintendent for the York City School District. The Commission honors people in the York community for their work in promoting diversity, equality and non-violence.